Never leave your computer logged in to mySVSU and unattended since anyone can access your computer and would then have full access to your account in VSpace, VMail, and Self Service.

Sign out when you are finished using mySVSU. If you are using a public computer, close your browser windows after signing out.

*Available 24/7, with the exception of Self Service, My Week, and Notifications, which are off-line Sunday 12am-1pm for system maintenance. During off-line times, an error message will be displayed in these areas.
